Pope Francis

If the whole Church takes up this missionary impulse, she has to go forth to everyone without exception. But to whom should she go first? When we read the Gospel we find a clear indication: not so much our friends and wealthy neighbors, but above all the poor and the sick, those who are usually despised and overlooked, "those who cannot repay you". There can be no room for doubt or for explanations which weaken so clear a message. Today and always, "the poor are the privileged recipients of the Gospel", and the fact that it is freely preached to them is a sign of the kingdom that Jesus came to establish. We have to state, without mincing words, that there is an inseparable bond between our faith and the poor. May we never abandon them.

Pope Francis, "The Joy of the Gospel", #48

Greetings,

I can't believe it's been a month since my retirement Mass and party. Much as happened in the interim, but I want to thank again all those involved in my farewell. It was both exciting and humbling. Unfortunately, my ability to write has been hampered by my disease, and so you will not receive an individual note of gratitude. Know that I am appreciative, and you are in my thoughts and prayers.

If you are ever in Madison, I would love to see you. My address:

All Saints Main Street
 511 Commerce Drive, Apt. #418,
 Madison, WI 53719
 Phone: 608-827-3646.

Blessings, Fr. Bill Connell

 October 28 - 29, 2017

Caritas has experienced an increase in the number of households that they are serving. Urgently needed food items are Cereal, any kind, and Crackers: Saltines, Grahams, Ritz, etc. The Parish Council has approved this special collection. There is a container in the back of the Church for those items. A container will also be in the Parish hall on Sunday, October 29, during our Parish Dinner. You are welcome to drop off your donations at that time. As always, thank you for your support in feeding the hungry.
 Any questions contact Bert Sadler at 365-1023.

few weeks each parish member will receive a letter, asking for your help with this. Please give the request prayerful consideration, and help as you are able.
