Pope Francis

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven”

Wealth ensures nothing. Indeed, once we think we are rich, we can become so self-satisfied that we leave no room for God’s word, for the love of our brothers and sisters, or for the enjoyment of the most important things in life. In this way, we miss out on the greatest treasure of all. That is why Jesus calls blessed those who are poor in spirit, those who have a poor heart, for there the Lord can enter with his perennial newness.

«Felices los pobres de espíritu, porque de ellos es el reino de los cielos»

Las riquezas no te aseguran nada. Es más: cuando el corazón se siente rico, está tan satisfecho de sí mismo que no tiene espacio para la Palabra de Dios, para amar a los hermanos ni para gozar de las cosas más grandes de la vida. Así se priva de los mayores bienes. Por eso Jesús llama felices a los pobres de espíritu, que tienen el corazón pobre, donde puede entrar el Señor con su constante novedad.

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (John 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. Look for opportunities to share His peace, not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, we receive the peace of Jesus Christ.
