Pope Francis

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted"

The world tells us exactly the opposite: entertainment, pleasure, diversion and escape make for the good life. The worldly person ignores problems of sickness or sorrow in the family or all around him; he averts his gaze. The world has no desire to mourn; it would rather disregard painful situations, cover them up or hide them. Much energy is expended on fleeing from situations of suffering in the belief that reality can be concealed. But the cross can never be absent.

«Felices los que lloran, porque ellos serán consolados»

El mundo nos propone lo contrario: el entretenimiento, el disfrute, la distracción, la diversión, y nos dice que eso es lo que hace buena la vida. El mundano ignora, mira hacia otra parte cuando hay problemas de enfermedad o de dolor en la familia o a su alrededor. El mundo no quiere llorar: prefiere ignorar las situaciones dolorosas, cubrirlas, esconderlas. Se gastan muchas energías por escapar de las circunstancias donde se hace presente el sufrimiento, creyendo que es posible disimular la realidad, donde nunca, nunca, puede faltar la cruz.

Our two linked congregations of St. Jude and St. Thomas will be hosting homeless families at St. Thomas, starting this weekend - Sunday, June 16 through Sunday, June 23. We will rotate the sign-up sheet between the two churches this weekend and hope to fill all our slots. Opportunities for helping are cooking and/or serving a meal, being an activities host playing with the kids (or just chatting with the parents), van driving, and overnight host. Our ultimate goal is to be hospitable by helping families feel welcome, safe, and comfortable, and we are very good at that! We would like to add some new volunteers (this can include groups of friends, families, students, couples, etc.), so we invite you to call to ask questions, or seek out another volunteer to ask them what the week is all about. Please contact DeAnne Gile at degile81@gmail.com, or call (608) 751-3495. Thank you!

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth...” (John 16:13)

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. Develop a daily prayer routine. Talk and listen to the Holy Spirit. This is best done in silence, when we can hear His response.
