Pope Francis

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled”

True justice comes about in people's lives when they themselves are just in their decisions; it is expressed in their pursuit of justice for the poor and the weak. While it is true that the word “justice” can be a synonym for faithfulness to God's will in every aspect of our life, if we give the word too general a meaning, we forget that it is shown especially in justice towards those who are most vulnerable: “Seek justice, correct oppression; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow”.

Hungering and thirsting for righteousness: that is holiness.

«Felices los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, porque ellos quedarán saciados»

Tal justicia empieza por hacerse realidad en la vida de cada uno siendo justo en las propias decisiones, y luego se expresa buscando la justicia para los pobres y débiles. Es cierto que la palabra «justicia» puede ser sinónimo de fidelidad a la voluntad de Dios con toda nuestra vida, pero si le damos un sentido muy general olvidamos que se manifiesta especialmente en la justicia con los desamparados: «Busca la justicia, socorred al oprimido, proteged el derecho del huérfano, defended a la viuda».

Buscar la justicia con hambre y sed, esto es santidad.

Rejoice & Be Glad paragraph #79
